FATHER HYACINTHE'S PROTEST AGAINST THE POPE AND THE CHURCH OF ROME.

PARIS, Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1869.

The papers of this city publish a letter from the preacher-monk, Father Hyacinthe, addressed to the Father-General of his order at Rome, announcing that he abandons his convent and ceases henceforth to preach in the Church of Notre Dame de Paris. As a reason for this radical step, he declares that he cannot obey the orders of the Holy See. He protests against the Pope and the Council, and against the doctrines and practices of the Roman Church which, as he contends, are not in accordance with the principles of Christianity. The French journals regard the letter of Pere Hyacinthe as a great religious and political event.

THE CUBAN REVOLUTION.

THE SPANISH MINISTRY DISCUSSING THE PROSPECT OF RETURNING GEN. SICKLES'S NOTE UNANSWERED.

MADRID, Sept. 21.—The journals of this city are still violent against the presumed unfriendliness of the American Government. Some of them urge an immediate declaration of war if the Cubans are recognized as belligerents. The Ministry, after discussing the propriety of returning Gen. Sickles's note unanswered, have decided to postpone their reply until the arrival of Gen. Prim.

RUMORED WITHDRAWAL OF GEN. SICKLES'S NOTE.

The Epoca says Gen. Sickles has withdrawn his note. This statement is not generally believed.

GEN. SICKLES AND HIS CUBAN NOTE SEVERELY CRITICIZED.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The Paris correspondent of the Times writes as follows: "The note of the American Minister to the Spanish Government in regard to Cuba, varies both in its tone and conclusions from the diplomatic communications between the Spanish Minister at Washington and the Government of the United States. The diplomatic experience of Gen. Sickles is limited, and probably insufficient to enable him to rightly estimate the value and effect of his words. Doubtless he is much surprised at the excitement they have created, and it will be difficult for his Government to approve of them. No pretext exists for recognizing the Cuban insurrection, which does not hold a single town or position, and owes its prolongation to the action of the climate on its opponents, and to the facilities afforded to the insurgents in a thinly-peopled country. The appointment of Gen. Sickles as Minister to Spain was greatly criticized, and has not yet been sanctioned by the Senate. That body will do itself credit by refusing to confirm the appointment of a man who has made so bad a first appearance in diplomacy."

THE TERMS OF GEN. SICKLES'S NOTE.

A letter from Madrid to The Standard says: "Gen. Sickles, in his note, intimates that the Government at Washington might, under the force of public opinion, be compelled to recognize the Cuban insurgents. He reminds the Spanish Government of the good faith which the United States has hitherto preserved its respect for international law, and of its unwillingness to embarrass Spain. Altogether, the note is not of an alarming nature; but the reticence of the Government, allowing the people to remain in ignorance of its contents, justifies the violent articles which have appeared in the Spanish journals for the past few days."

AID TO THE GOVERNMENT.

HAVANA, Sept. 21.—The directors of the Alianza Bank have offered aid to the Government for the purpose of carrying on the war, to the amount of the total profits of the bank while the rebellion lasts. The directors have paid on account of such amount $30,000. The brig Thomas Owen and bark Harry Booth have arrived here from New-York.

SPANISH AND CUBAN LOSSES—AN EXTRAORDINARY STATEMENT.

HAVANA, Sept. 11.—Accumulating facts prove that the victory of the Cubans at Las Tunas was well nigh complete. One new fact deserves attention. Gen. Benegasi, in going to Tunas, had a convoy of 280 horses, loaded with supplies of provisions and arms, which was guarded by 543 men. The insurgents fought him two days after the Tunas battle, at a distance of 400 metres from the town, of which fact the correspondent of La Voz speaks as follows: "Because of our deeply-felt losses, and for the reason that our forces were small and overworked, we passed the remainder of the 16th, the 17th, and half of the 18th in great anxiety, fearing, as we did, a repetition of the loss of the 16th. At about mid-day of the 18th, Gen. Benegasi arrived with 500 men and a few provisions, which animated our spirits greatly. This officer took command at once of this central point of operations, and is now at work enlarging the fortifications. Excepting the center of the town, everything is in ruins."

THE PARAGUAYAN QUESTION.

Here it is clear that the insurgents took to the fight with Benegasi most of his supplies. Two hundred and eighty horses should have carried a large amount of provisions and war material, yet La Voz's correspondent acknowledges that very little of this convoy got safely into Las Tunas. The bad condition of the Spaniards is made more manifest by other language used in the same journal: "If it be well for us to keep Las Tunas, it is useless to send up there 300 or 400 men. We must forward at once 3,000 or 4,000 men, well provided in all respects."

THE ENEMY HAVE BEEN ABOUT THIS PLACE 11 MONTHS, AND HAVE BEEN DURING ALL THAT TIME HARASSING OUR TROOPS.

The Diario de la Marina publishes the following statement, which is, at the least, amusing: "We have under our eyes statistical tables, made up from the official reports of our officers, which go back to the 13th of October, 1868, and terminate at the present time. The losses of the two parties during the time indicated were as follows:

Cuba. Dead, 14,691; Wounded, 6,714; Prisoners, 1,661; Surrendered, 14,301; Total, 37,369.

Spain. Dead, 370; Wounded, 692; Prisoners, 18; Surrendered, 1,073; Total, 1,943.

This shows a difference against the Cubans of 37,369. Another table is printed which reports a loss to the Cubans of 8,354 horses (taken by the Spanish), 48 cannon, 3,792 fire arms, and 2,698 arms of other kinds, while the Spanish lost only 40 horses, and no arms.

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE POPE'S ANSWER TO DR. CUMMING.

LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1869.

The Pope has sent a communication to Cardinal Manning in reference to the proposal of Dr. Cumming to appear at the Ecumenical Council. The Pope refers Dr. Cumming to the terms of the letter of invitation addressed to Protestants, and says he will find that it is an invitation, not to a discussion, but only to profit by the opportunity to return to the Church. The Pope says, in conclusion, that there is no room at the Council for the defense of errors which have already been condemned.

The Times, commenting on the above, says the de-

THE CANVAS FOR CONFEDERATION IN NEW-FOUNDLAND.

CHINA.

A TRADE POLICY.

LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1869.

The Pall Mall Gazette reviews the idea of a Chinese policy put forth by Mr. Browne, late American Minister to China. It says the basis of his argument is the opening of new markets to the Christian traders. In point of fact, there is nothing to show that the difficulties between foreigners and the Chinese are merely questions of interpretation. A true account would be that the former forced the Chinese to grant privileges which the latter, not daring to withdraw, seek to evade. The extortion of such privileges is a mistake. If intercourse with China is to be better than a series of little wars we must be content to measure the right of trade with China by her willingness to trade with us.

PARAGUAY.

CONTRADICTORY ACCOUNTS—THE PARAGUAYANS DEFEATED BUT ABLE TO HOLD OUT.

PARIS, Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1869.

Reports from Brazilian sources represent that the defeat of President Lopez, at Ascurra, was a complete rout, and that the struggle was ended. La Patrie, on the other hand, has different accounts, which, while acknowledging that the Paraguayans have suffered a reverse, maintain that Lopez is still able and determined to continue the war. Sr. Paranhos, the Brazilian Commissioner to Paraguay, had returned to Rio Janeiro.

COUNT DEU'S LETTER—THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT—THE POSITION AND NUMBERS OF LOPEZ.

WE HAVE DATA OF THE BUENOS AYRES STAND-ARDE UP TO AUGUST 17. They give an account of a small affair at Java, where the Paraguayans lost 100 men killed before retreating. A letter from Count Deu's published, in which he reports that the building of a railway and the almost incessant rains of Java have detained him from making an immediate movement. The Paraguayans, on the other hand, have been successful in their position. The Count Deu's letter is not to be undertaken by the allied forces will effect the termination of the war, at least the occupation of another important region. On the 24th of August a reconnaissance was made at Paraguaray, and the Paraguayans were defeated. The Paraguayans were defeated, but they were able to hold out.
